Acts 13:1-3; 14:8-18

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle. Open your devotion with prayer.

O Lord, ministry in your kingdom is a daily adventure. Surprise us with the zeal of those who have never heard your gospel and reinvigorate our witness with your Spirit of power. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Read: Read the key verse from Sunday's reading.

"Friends, why are you doing this? We are mortals just like you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them." (Acts 13:15)

Reflect: Reflect on the scripture summary.

Ministering in completely foreign lands poses some unpredictable challenges for Paul and his partners. For one, a powerful witness of healing might get one confused with a god.

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household.

What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?

What belief or action does your congregation cling to that might be challenged to change? What changes in understanding would need to happen to make those changes possible?

If you could bring the message of God's love to any place in the world, where would you go? Why?

For the littles: If you could go anywhere in this world or in a make-believe world, where would you go? Why? Jesus sent his disciples to all kinds of strange and wonderful lands.

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God walk with you in the great big world. Amen.

Do: By acting on what we learn, we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Find out where your congregation sends people on mission trips. Do you have a sister congregation somewhere in the world? Do something to support faraway missions.
