

Daily Readings

---

Monday, 01/16: God's People are Comforted

Isaiah 58: 6 - 12

- God speaks through the prophet Isaiah to lift up justice and mercy over sacrifice and fasting. Why do you think God finds one more important than the other?

Tuesday, 01/17: The Widow of Zarephath

1 Kings 17: 8 - 24

- Why do you think Jesus refers to this story in response to those in the synagogue?

Wednesday, 01/18: The Healing of Naaman

2 Kings 5: 1—19

- Has there ever been a time when your own biases, anger, and fear kept you from receiving something you needed?

Thursday, 01/19: The Man with an Unclean Spirit

Luke 4: 31 - 37

- Who do you know who speaks with authority? How do you respond to their speech?

Friday, 01/20: Healings at Simon's House

Luke 4: 38 - 41

- Why is it important that the demons knew who Jesus was? What does this passage teach us about who Jesus is, and about what is important to Jesus?

Saturday, 01/21: Jesus Preaches in the Synagogues

Luke 4: 42 - 44

- How would you describe the “good news of the kingdom of God?”

Next week: Luke 5: 1 - 11
