

Daily Readings

Monday, 03/20: Psalm 119: 169 - 176

- The Psalmist knows that they are in need of God's help and begs for aid. What makes you appreciate God's grace the most?

Tuesday, 03/21: 1 Samuel 16: 6 - 13

- Appearances can be deceiving and God's vision is different from our own. How might it make a difference in your life if you sought to look at others as God does?

Wednesday, 03/22: Genesis 45: 1 - 9

- The two brothers in Jesus' parable are not the only siblings who have a rocky relationship. Consider your relationship with your own family, how do they help or challenge your faith?

Thursday, 03/23: Genesis 45: 21 - 28

- Jacob had believed that his son Joseph had been dead for many years. Have you ever had to live with heartache for years yet found joy later on?

Friday, 03/24: Exodus 2: 1 - 10

- Through an unexpected turn of events, baby Moses is not only saved from death but also returned to his mother. Think of moments of unexpected goodness in your life and praise God through prayer.

Saturday, 03/25: John 4: 46 - 54

- A desperate father approaches Jesus, begging for his son to be healed. This story reminds us that God is often at work before we can even know it. What other ways does God heal other than physical healing of our illnesses?

Next week: Luke 16: 19 - 31
