

Daily Readings

Monday, 04/10: Luke 19: 45 - 48

- Jesus enters the temple, clears out the moneychangers and begins to teach. Does it surprise/bother you to read of Jesus getting physical? Why or why not?

Tuesday, 04/11: Luke 21: 5 - 18

- Jesus warns about preoccupation with end-time predictions (21.8) and instead commands simple attentiveness to God's presence every moment of every day. How might your day change if you were attentive to God?

Wednesday, 04/12: Luke 21: 25 - 38

- Jesus concludes his teaching in the temple. What do you think the main point Jesus was trying to get across in these last teachings?

Thursday, 04/13: Luke 22: 1 - 27

- Jesus eats the Passover meal with his followers and teaches them about service to one another. Look up the definition this week to the words humility, servant, and sacrifice.

Friday, 04/14: Luke 23: 32 - 47

- Jesus is crucified, suffers, and speaks words of salvation. Simply reflect on this passage. Read it more than once. Let the words and it's meaning sink deep into your soul.

Saturday, 04/15: Luke 24: 48- 56

- Jesus dies on the cross and is buried. Grief is universal. Take time on this day to consider those you have grieved for.

Next week: Luke 24: 1 - 12
