

Daily Readings

Monday, 05/21: 1 Thessalonians 1

- The apostle Paul is appreciative of his partners in ministry. Who are the people who have shared your journey and made a difference in your life with Jesus Christ?

Tuesday, 05/22 1 Thessalonians 2: 1 – 16

- Paul points back to the results that happened from their visit. Why is it important for us to reflect on some of the ways we've seen God produce results in our lives?

Wednesday, 05/23: 1 Thessalonians 2: 17 - 3: 13

- What were some of the emotions that Paul felt for the Thessalonians? What actions did he take to care for them?

Thursday, 05/24: 1 Thessalonians 4: 1 - 12

- Paul says that they have instructed them how to please God. Why is it a good idea to live a life that is pleasing to God?

Friday, 05/25: 1 Thessalonians 4: 13 - 18

- Churches have split over "end times" discussions. Why is that a problem? Is there anything that all believers should be in complete agreement on?

Saturday, 05/26: 1 Thessalonians 5

- What are all of the characteristics Paul lays out for what a good community looks like?

Next week: Philippians 4: 4 - 9
