

Daily Readings

---

Monday, 09/18: Choosing of Rebekah
Genesis 24: 1 - 27

- What details about the character and faith of Abraham's servant can you glean from this reading?

Tuesday, 09/19: Choosing of Rebekah
Genesis 24: 28 - 49

- How does hospitality play into the unfolding of this story? Is it crucial or peripheral?

Wednesday, 09/20: Marriage of Isaac and Rebekah
Genesis 24: 50 - 67

- Rebekah believed that the Lord spoke through the servant. How do you discern whether or not it is God speaking through someone else?

Thursday, 09/21: The Birth of Esau and Jacob
Genesis 25: 19 - 28

- This is the second Thursday in a row we read about fighting brothers. Why do you think sibling rivalry is such a big part of God's story?

Friday, 09/22: Esau Sells His Birthright
Genesis 25: 29 - 34

- Have you ever made a foolish deal? Did you keep the deal?

Saturday, 09/23: Isaac and Abimelech
Genesis 26: 1 - 33

- What do you think it was like for Isaac and his family to live in strained relationship with reluctant hosts? To be without a homeland?

Next week: Genesis 27: 1 - 4, 15—23;
28: 10 - 17